In Dangerous Times:
Women's Friendships and International Networks in the Spanish Civil War

Thursday, April 20, 2017

Screening of: Las trece rosas (Dir. Emilio Martínez-Lázaro, 2007)
1:00-2:40 p.m. Circulation C6A Hayden Library

Roundtable: 3:00-5:00
Institute Humanities Research Social Sciences 109

Friday, April 21st, 2017
West Hall

10:00-11:30 am
Nöel Valis
"'From the Face of My Memory': Women Journalists in the Spanish Civil War"

12:00-1:00 Lunch (catered)

1:00-2:30 pm
Josebe Martínez Gutiérrez
"Escritura peligrosa: Kent, Nelken y Campoamor en la época del totalitarismo"

Refreshments

3:00-4:30 pm
Shirley Mangini
"María Zambrano and her Legacy: Activism and Resistance during the Republic, the Civil War and its Aftermath"

Co-sponsored by
Dean George Justice, Department of English, Institute Humanities Research, Jewish Studies, School of International Letters and Cultures, School of Social Transformation, School of Historical, Philosophical, and Religious Studies