

Community-engaged research to improve HIV prevention and care to end the HIV epidemic: A Partnership Series

Developed in collaboration with Arizona State University, Edson College of Nursing and Health Innovation, the Center for Health Promotion and Disease Prevention and the Arizona Biomedical Research Centre, this five event series is designed to bring partners together with the common mission of:

Ending the HIV Epidemic

Who should attend?

- ⇒ Healthcare providers (e.g. physicians, nurses, and allied health professionals) involved in HIV care and prevention.
- ⇒ Local community-based organizations and interested community leaders.
- ⇒ Faculty, students and academic partners.
- ⇒ Advocates and allies.
- ⇒ Local and state health agencies.

What is our goal?

- ⇒ Explore community-engaged research that will inform and improve HIV prevention and care of those living with HIV.
- ⇒ Understand the unique tapestry of resources and services available.
- ⇒ Develop a network of stakeholders, advocates and allies.
