21st Century Scooby-Doo: From Scooby-Doo Where Are You! to Velma

2–3 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 20

Burton Barr Central Library | 1221 N. Central Ave.

ASU Film and Media Studies professor Kevin Sandler will discuss the 54-year history of Scooby-Doo, from its origins on Saturday morning television to more contemporary incarnations like the feature film Scoob! and the Max streaming series Velma.

A Visit with Willie Ito

10–11 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 27

Burton Barr Central Library | 1221 N. Central Ave.

Animator Willie Ito will discuss his nearly seventy-year experience as an animator in Hollywood, beginning with the spaghetti scene in Disney's Lady and the Tramp to his work on Looney Tunes and Hanna-Barbera cartoons like The Jetsons, Scooby-Doo, and Hong Kong Phooey. In his talk, he will also recount his experience as a teenager in WWII internment camps to his more recent work as a designer of Disney merchandise.

Presented in partnership with

ASU Film and Media Studies program, Asian Pacific American Studies program, and The Piper Center for Creative Writing.
