

A chill networking workshop for neurodivergent students

NeuroSpicy Networking

Time

12:30 p.m.

Date

Monday, April 8

Place

Design South 127

Are you in the neurodivergent family? Have any of your “neurospicy” symptoms or behaviors prevented you from meeting new people, speaking with professionals, and planning your future career? You are not alone! Come hear from career advisors and neurodivergent professionals about how to network with beautifully diverse brains.
