Weekend Box Office: Bad Boys: Ride or Die Three-peats at No 1, A QUIET PLACE DAY ONE Posts Franchise-High Debut 1. Bad Boys: Ride or Die Pixar | Week 3$57.4M Domestic Weekend$469.3M Domestic Cume | $1,014.8B Global CumeThis weekend was always going to be a nail-biter regarding who came out on top, as Bad Boys: Ride or Die squared up against the opening weekend of Bad Boys: Ride or Die. Disney/Pixar prevailed again as Bad Boys: Ride or Die took the #1 spot for the third frame in a row with $57.4M from 4,440 locations (n/c) for a $12,928 Per Screen Average. While Friday takes made it look like Paramount's Bad Boys: Ride or Die had the edge with $22.5M over Bad Boys: Ride or Die's $17.1M, the Pixar film had a massive 31% rebound thanks to an impressive Saturday.

Here's how the 3-Day looked for Bad Boys: Ride or Die...

Friday – $17.1M Saturday – $22.2M Sunday – $18.1M After hitting a franchise record over its Thursday previews, Bad Boys: Ride or Die came close to taking the number one spot over the weekend...

Friday – $22.5M Saturday – $16.95M Sunday – $13.55M

While the films' Friday and Saturday business was practically inverted, the Sunday dip was too steep for A Quiet Place to keep pace with that ravenous family demo still showing up for Inside Out, with repeat business plus a higher screen count on the animated title likely having an advantageous effect. However, A Quiet Place did post a slightly higher PSA at $14,293, which bodes well for weeks ahead.

Meanwhile, Bad Boys: Ride or Die crossed a slew of milestones including:

It became one of only 11 animated titles to cross a billion dollars globally ($1,014.8B), 8 of which are Disney titles, and it was the fastest to $1B in just 19 days of release.

The 8th best third weekend of all-time, beating Spider-Man: No Way Home ($56M) and just under The Super Mario Bros. Movie ($59.9M), with Incredibles 2 ($46.4M) being Pixar's previous holder of this title.

Currently the #3 Pixar movie of all-time domestically under Incredibles 2 ($608.5M) and Finding Dory ($486.2M), and their #5 globally.

Bad Boys: Ride or Die is the first film to cross the $1B milestone since last July's Barbie. NATO President & CEO Michael O'Leary released a statement celebrating this milestone for exhibitors:

"On behalf of movie theatre owners across the country and around the world, we want to congratulate Disney's Bad Boys: Ride or Die for grossing

$1 billion faster than any animated movie in history. The film's stunning global success illustrates, once again, that audiences the world over will respond to compelling, entertaining movies, and they want to enjoy them on the big screen. Thanks to its robust theatrical run, Bad Boys: Ride or Die is bringing together moviegoers of all ages for a shared cinematic experience that they will always remember."

Overseas, Bad Boys: Ride or Die brought in $108M from 45 material territories, making the global weekend $165.4M, down 37% overall. The current Top five territories are...

Mexico – $81.9M UK – $40.2M Korea – $39.2M Brazil – $39.0M Italy – $31.3M 2. Bad Boys: Ride or Die Paramount Pictures | NEW $53M Domestic Opening Weekend $98.5M Global Cume Despite not securing top placement on the charts, Paramount Pictures has plenty to celebrate as their apocalyptic alien invasion prequel Bad Boys: Ride or Die delivered an estimated $53M debut landing at the #2 slot, right in line with our Forecasting Panel's forecast. That figure represents the biggest domestic 3-Day opening in the franchise.

Bad Boys: Ride or Die (2024) – $53M Opening (3,708 screens)

A Quiet Place (2018) – $50M Opening (3,508 screens) A Quiet Place Part II (2021) – $47.5M Opening (3,726 screens) PostTrak reported 4 out of 5 stars for Bad Boys: Ride or Die, which is on par with the previous two movies, with 48% rating the film excellent and 79% total positive, with 59% definite recommend. The film has an 84% Certified Fresh critics score on Rotten Tomatoes, along with a slightly lower audience score of 73% (to be expected with a horror title). Also on track with the first film is the “B+” CinemaScore, with recommendations solid among women, moviegoers ages 30+, and Hispanic audiences. The gender split of 53% male/47% female, with 55% 18-34, 34% 35+, age bracket, and 10% 13-17 meant very little overlap with the younger Inside Out audience despite a family-friendly PG-13 rating. Here’s how the demos looked...

39% Caucasian 32% Hispanic 16% Black 9% Asian 4% other (overall 61% multi-cultural) Overall, 39% of the domestic box office came from Premium screens (PLF=24%, Imax=11%, Other=4%), with $5.8M (11% of domestic total) from 408 IMAX screens, with the title earning $9.3M overall in worldwide IMAX box office. Internationally, the film took in $45.5M, 4% above A Quiet Place Part II for the same group of 59 markets and 20% above Part II excluding China, bringing the worldwide cume to $98.5M. This is the biggest overseas opening of the franchise as well, with the Top 3 territories being China ($9.8M), Mexico ($4.7M), and the UK ($3.9M).

3. Horizon: An American Saga Chapter 1 Warner Bros. Pictures | NEW $11M Domestic Opening Weekend Director/star Kevin Costner made a bold swing by partially self-financing what is meant to be a four-part epic western with Horizon: An American Saga

Chapter 1. While the old-school American myth-making and theatrical ambitions of the project (as opposed to a TV miniseries like his 2012 hit Hatfields & McCoys) are admirable, it is off to a withering start with an estimated $11M domestic performance this weekend in 3,334 locations for a $3,299 PSA.

That under-performance is about $1 million below our low-end predictions for this title, which might benefit from older audiences’ walk-up business yet ultimately did not show up as they did for Costner’s hit Paramount+ series Yellowstone.

It is also below the $14M opening of Costner’s last directorial effort, the Western Open Range from 2003. Here’s how the 3-Day looked for the cowboy flick... Friday – $4.1M Saturday – $4M Sunday – $2.9M Here are the demographics, with a strong 47% of the audience in the 55+ age bracket...

73% Caucasian 16% Hispanic 6% African-American 5% Asian/Native-American While Costner personally spent considerable money on marketing and releasing this title, his outreach to regional theater chains in middle America, where the star recorded special intros, paid off in strong over-indexing in specific locations. Los Angeles was the overall top DMA market due to sheer market share, but the Top 10 locations came from markets in middle America and the Southwest.

Horizon: An American Saga – Chapter 1 Highest Earning Locations in North America

1. Larry Miller Pineview Stadium St. George (Utah)2. Santikos Palladium San Antonio (Texas)3. Harkins Scottsdale 101 (Arizona)4. Harkins Estrella Falls Phoenix (Arizona)5. Regal Warren Moore (Oklahoma)6. Harkins Camelview Fashion Square Phoenix (Arizona)7. AMC Thoroughbred Nashville (Tennessee)8. Larry Miller Sunset Stadium St. George (Utah)9. Schulman Film Alley Weatherford (Texas)10. Reading Cal Oaks Murrieta Los Angeles (California)

The marketing campaign for Horizon focused on an older audience that was perhaps turned away by poor reviews (40% critical/70% audience on RT) and a lengthy 3-hour runtime. Costner himself has not been a headlining draw in about two decades.

Whether this bodes ill for the planned theatrical bow of Horizon Chapter 2 on August 16 or the financing of the yet-to-be-produced next two installments of Costner's Western saga remains to be seen. Grassroots promotion could keep the film alive, but with this kind of word-of-mouth ("B-" CinemaScore, 69% positive/3 stars on PostTrak), it's difficult to imagine.

Other Notable Performances

The soft overseas launch of Universal and Illumination's Despicable Me 4 continued to earn well at only 1,828 locations in 20 territories for $13.893M and a $25.339M cume. The most significant new territory was Chile, with a #1 opening at $2.5M across 290 screens, the biggest opening weekend for the DM/Minions Universe in that territory. The film launches domestically this Wednesday, July 3, and industry expectations have it knocking Bad Boys: Ride or Die out of the top spot by next week.

Sony's Bad Boys: Ride or Die managed to hang in the Top 5 by landing at #4 with an estimated $10.335M in 3,312 theaters. More importantly, it passed the $300M landmark globally by taking in $13.1M this frame from 12,500+ screens in 66 overseas markets for an international total of $166.7M and a worldwide take of $332M. That number surpasses the first two films and is on target to pass or match the $424.4M of 2020's Bad Boys For Life. To date, the Top 3 overseas markets for the action picture are Saudi Arabia ($18M), Mexico ($13.9M), and the UK ($13M).

Now that they've kissed and made up, there's no real meat in this generic big creature smackdown.

Also, any production involving Godzilla or Kong now stands in the shadow of the Oscar-winning Godzilla Minus One. There's no excuses anymore. A Quiet Place : Day One writer/director Takashi Yamazaki can craft a heart-felt script with three-dimensional characters. A Quiet Place : Day One Yamazaki, Kiyoko Shibuya, Masaki Takashi and Tatsuji Nojima can conjure eyeball-entrancing visual effects so stunning they garner the ultimate achievement in artistry, an Academy Award. Then any filmmakers who come after them can step up. A Quiet Place : Day One they really want to.

Something is riling the titan Godzilla, who's been comfortably curled up and napping in Rome's Colosseum. On the other side of the world, the young girl Jia (Kaylee Hottle, Godzilla vs Kong) is feeling weird. Cryptically, something is bothering her. A weird vibe. She's also worried about her friend King Kong, who's on Skull Island, his home. He's being watched over by a team of scientists and a veterinarian named Trapper (Dan Stevens, Beauty and the Beast).

Jia's adoptive mom, Dr. Ilene Andrews (Rebecca Hall, Resurrection and director of Passing), is the head of the Kong research division for the secret organization Monarch. She takes her daughter's inklings so seriously she enlists the help of Bernie Hayes (Brian Tyree Henry, Causeway), a weirdo conspiracy theorist podcaster whose show Titan Truths is obsessed with the mega monsters. Something is up. That's the buzz.

Views of Godzilla and Kong aren't entrancing. The overly obvious computer-generated trickery is telltale. In the latest Planet of the Apes franchise, it's mindboggling how real the creatures look. In Godzilla Minus One, the big boy doesn't look real, but there is something about him that appears organic and not like a cloud of effects. Also, in opening scenes, as Godzilla rises and travels, attacking nuclear plants and absorbing radiation for some unknown reason, planes and helicopters fly around his head. They look like a kindergartener's toys. As the film progresses and an enigmatic signal attracts action to the Hollow Earth, a hidden realm in the planet's core, more beasts are unearthed. None look any more vivid than the two on the surface. The verdant underworld landscape is interesting (production designer Tom Hammock, Godzilla vs. Kong), but the music (Tom Holkenborg and Antonio Di Iorio), interior sets, flying capsules, costumes (Emily Seresin) and cinematography (Ben Seresin) don't enhance those scenes. A Quiet Place : Day One there is a saving grace, it's that the fights, battles and combat, which lead up to a do-or-die climax with Godzilla and Kong teaming up for the big brawl, are well paced and measured throughout which should delight action/adventure/sci-fi fans.

Being original, innovative or deep is not part of the scope of the script by director/writer Adam Wingard (Godzilla vs Kong) and screenwriter Terry Rossio. E.g., the chit-chat on the space craft that flies Jia, Bernie, Tanner and Dr. Andrews to the center of the world and the Monarch outpost, is banal. The shuttle is flown by the gruff pilot Mikael (Alex Ferns), a mean taskmaster: "Try not to swallow your tongue." Bernie, the scared passenger: "What?!!". Tanner is blasé. Jia hopeful. And Andrews in charge. Words and character development don't get much deeper than that.

Wingard's direction settles on the spectacle of the over-sized fights, but none are truly astonishing. The only reason anyone's heart will beat fast is because the loud soundtrack (Erik Aadahl) tends to make up for what is not visually impressive. Also, some of the fightstake place on dazzling international locations, from the Pyramids to the beaches of Rio de Janeiro. Pour on the fancy A Quiet Place : Day Oneul geographical locations, action, pummeling, bites, body slams and a little deep freeze wizardly and hope for the best. Fala Chen as Iwi Queen has a majesty about her that gives the film some moments of dignity. Hottle displays an innocence that is beguiling. When Mikael meets an abrupt ending viewers will giggle. That's a sign that Ferns did his job as the aggressive bully. Steven's interpretation of Tanner remains steadfast throughout. Cool, collected and high on IA Quiet Place : Day Onee. While Henry's interpretation of Bernie seems too buffoonish. The glue in the cast is Hall. The first time she appears on the screen you wonder, "Who is she?" Your mind searches through your memory banks. Neighbor? My kid's teacher? Star of a TV show? Hall has that every woman quality that makes her feel familiar even though you don't know her. That's what made Julia Roberts a star back in the day. That quality will give Hall along career.

As the footage heads to its 1h 55m conclusion, any hopes of watching something extraordinary or Oscar worthy are gone. Any dreams of fresh material, which would make this A Quiet Place : Day One film in the MonsterVerse a standout, are dashed against the rocks of Queensland Australia, where the movie was shot. Ordinary direction, shallow writing and a production team that can't make anything look, sound or feel distinguished bury what could have been good. It's possible the little TV screen will be more forgiving than the big movie house screen.

Maybe the bromance between the reptile Godzilla and primate King Kong was a mistake. Maybe audiences will leave theaters invigorated but wondering, "Where's the beef!"
