Thu., Oct. 15, 4 p.m.

Zoom link:
asu.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_qRP1RFrmTfuVuycVvOKe-A

Join our Zoom conversation with renowned scholar and founding director of the Voces Oral History Center, Dr. Maggie Rivas Rodriguez, who will discuss her two decades of work rescuing stories of Latinx veterans from World War II, Korea, and Vietnam.

Moderators:

Dr. Manuel G. Avilés-Santiago
Director, Office for Veteran and Military Academic Engagement
Associate Professor of Communication and Culture
ASU College of Integrative Sciences and Arts

Dr. Vanessa Fonseca-Chávez
Co-director, Following the Manito Trail Project
Assistant Professor of English
ASU College of Integrative Sciences and Arts

When Maggie Rivas-Rodríguez went looking for books about Latinxs who served in World War II, she couldn’t find any. She decided not only to write her own, but also to produce one of the most important audiovisual archives dedicated to Latinx veterans, activists, and community leaders across the country, spanning three wars and decades of advocacy: voces.lib.utexas.edu