Arizona State University is delighted to exhibit the photographic works of internationally renowned artist, Chen Baosheng. His finest works will be showcased, including his “Spirit of Dragon and Horse,” “Pride of the Yellow River,” and “Customs of the Yellow Soil.”

An acclaimed professor, calligrapher, painter and writer, Chen Baosheng (whose pen name is Huangheqizi 黄河碛子 “Moraine Child of the Yellow River”) leaped to international fame when his photographs were exhibited at the 17th Arles International Photography Festival in France. French newspaper Le Monde wrote,

> Mr. Chen finds views with extreme elaboration, creates a poetic atmosphere, and possesses the style of filmmakers Akira Kurosawa and Cecil B. DeMille.

Don’t miss this rare opportunity to meet Chen Baosheng and see his works in person. Join us at ASU Noble Library for the lecture on February 15th, 2019 from 1:30 pm to 3:00 pm.

Lecture  Friday, February 15th, 2019
1:30–3:00 p.m.
Noble Library, First Floor, Instruction Room 105

Exhibit  February 14th — 28th

Address  Arizona State University
Tempe Campus
Noble Library
601 E. Tyler Mall, Tempe, AZ 85281

For more information, please contact:
Qian Liu, PhD Maria Chen
Qian.Liu.2@asu.edu mariachen@cox.net

We recommend visitors park in the Fulton Center Parking Structure, just north of the ASU Foundation building, at the northeast corner of University Drive and College Avenue.
Master Art Works Exhibit by Famous Chinese Photographic Artist Chen Baosheng

Lecture  Friday, February 15th, 2019
        1:30–3:00 p.m.
        Noble Library, First Floor,
        Instruction Room 105

Exhibit  February 14th — 28th

Photography by Chen Baosheng