Thursday, May 13 • 2 p.m.

The Indian Legal Program and the Native American Law Students Association at the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University invite you to virtually celebrate the upcoming graduation of our talented law students.

Although we will not be together physically, we want to nonetheless honor our graduates and their amazing accomplishments in the comfort of their homes. Please join us for this special online ceremony and see some familiar faces in a live video premiere.
