

The College of Integrative Sciences and Arts presents:

Humanities Dialogues

@ ASU Poly ^{Fall} 2019

Monday, Oct. 28 | 10:30-11:30 a.m. | SANTN Room 131

Place-Based Writing Workshop

Patricia Murphy, Principal Lecturer

Thursday, Nov. 7 | 10:30-11:45 a.m. | AGBC Room 145

On the 'Pleasures of War' Redux:

Why Warfighters Love the Wars in Vietnam, Afghanistan, and Iraq

Tony Clark, Senior Lecturer

Establishing Religious Freedom:

The Unlikely Alliance that Separated Church from State in Virginia

Debra Neill, Lecturer

Monday, Nov. 25 | 1:00-2:15 p.m. | AGBC Room 160

Thinking Epistemic Injustice from the Global South:

Practices of Genocide-denial, Silencing and Collective Ignorance in Contemporary Turkey

Imge Oranli, Assistant Professor of Philosophy

How People are Influenced by Deceptive Tactics Used in Everyday Graphs and Charts

Claire Lauer, Associate Professor of Technical Communication

Shaun O'Brien, MS in Technical Communication, PhD student in Human Systems Engineering

All presentations are at ASU's Polytechnic campus: asu.edu/map

Questions?

Wendy.R.Williams@asu.edu

*All presentations are free and open to the public.
Details are subject to change.*

