

Humanities Lecture Series, Fall 2021

“Giants and Eco-Nationalism in Tatar Islamic Literature”

Wed., Sept. 22, 2021; 5 - 6:30 p.m.

Agnes Kefeli

Clinical Professor; ASU School of Historical, Philosophical and Religious Studies

Volga Tatars took pains to introduce their readers to the spiritual riches of their Islamic identity in atheist Soviet Union.

Zoom link: <https://bit.ly/Humanities-Sept22>

Password: 233265

“Appreciating Diversity in Veteran Voices”

Thurs., November 4, 5 - 7 p.m.; Zoom

Manuel G. Avilés-Santiago (Panel Moderator)

Associate Dean and Associate Professor, ASU College of Integrative Sciences and Arts. Director, Office for Veteran and Military Academic Engagement

Veterans discuss their background, experience in and out of the military.

Zoom link: <bit.ly/Humanities-Nov4>

Password: 889575

“Crate Digging Culture of Music DJs”

Part of ASU Humanities Week: Oct 18-22

Thurs., October 21, 6 - 8 p.m.;
Cronkite 128 (in person)

Michael Pfister (Panel Moderator)

Instructor, ASU College of Integrative Sciences and Arts

Non-traditional research and discovery in the humanities.

“Women in Higher Education Speak”

Wed., November 10, 5 - 7 p.m.;

Pamela Stewart (Panel Moderator)

Senior Lecturer, ASU College of Integrative Sciences and Arts

How women navigate higher education institutions; challenges and successes at ASU.

Zoom link: <bit.ly/Humanities-Nov10>

Password: 229331