Will Humble, MPH
Executive Director
Arizona Public Health Association

Will Humble is a long-time public health enthusiast and is currently the Executive Director for the Arizona Public Health Association (AzPHA). His 30 years in public health include more than 2 decades at the Arizona Department of Health Services, where he served in various roles including as the Director from 2009 to 2015. He continues to be involved in health policy in his role as the Executive Director for the Arizona Public Health Association.

He has a BS in Marketing from NAU, a BS in Microbiology from ASU, and an MPH from the University of California at Berkeley. He was awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Science from the U of A for engaging partnerships between academic and executive public health.

Will is a believer in using evidence-based health policy to improve health outcomes and in leading and managing with emotional intelligence.

Will Humble will provide an overview of key policy decisions that have been made and not made during the course of the COVID-19 pandemic in Arizona and the profound impact that those decisions have made on the trajectory of the pandemic. He will emphasize the importance of evidence-based public health advocacy as a means to influence executive branch decisions. He will provide a synopsis of the crisis currently facing Arizona hospitals and its public health implications as well as a summary of Arizona’s efforts to vaccinate high risk persons.
