

Indigenous Culture Week

“Spirit Plate”

by Sacramento Knox

Wednesday, April 7, 6–8 p.m.

Sacramento Knox (Ojibwe/Anishinaabe and Xicano) will share his praxis of social change and music for this year’s Indigenous Culture Week at ASU. Knox utilizes visual projections, video, art skillshares and rap music throughout his performances in order to engage the audience with the concept of biiskaabiyang (decolonization).

To register for the Zoom event, please use links.asu.edu/labriola-spirit-plate-event

Department of English
Red Ink Indigenous Initiative
ASU Library

