

"Living a Legacy"

Lieutenant Colonel,
U.S. Army (retired)

Consuelo Castillo Kickbusch

From barely surviving childhood in a barrio in Texas to receiving an award from the President at the White House, join Consuelo Castillo Kickbusch for an interactive and introspective presentation on living, not just leaving, a legacy. Consuelo will guide you through your vision of the future, the goals you would like to accomplish for yourself and your community, and demonstrate how success, service, and resilience affect our individual journeys. She ignites purpose, hope, and inspiration in all who hear her message.

Consuelo's achievements include:

- Highest-ranking Hispanic woman in the Combat Support Field of the U.S. Army
- She's inspired over a million students across the U.S.
- Founder of Educational Achievement Services, Inc.
- Hispanic Business Magazine's Top 100 Influential Hispanics in America

Army Veteran | Author | Educator |
First-Generation Student |
Servant-Leader | Motivational Speaker

Learn to thrive

Wednesday, March 20th, 3-4:30 PM
ASU Tempe campus
Student Pavilion, Senita B/C
Free. Open to public.

RSVP at <https://asulivingalegacy.eventbrite.com>

Light reception and book signing to follow
Will verify attendance as extra credit
(as applicable)

Co-sponsored by

Gaining
Early
Awareness and
Readiness for Undergraduate
Programs

