Jan. 15, 2019  |  Biodesign Auditorium, B105
Doors open at 5 p.m.

EAT
Box supper served.
RSVP required sols.asu.edu/life-science-ethics

WATCH
“Awakenings” (1990), featuring Robert De Niro and Robin Williams. This movie explores Dr. Malcolm Sayer’s efforts to treat catatonic individuals who survived an early twentieth century encephalitis lethargica epidemic with L-Dopa in 1969. The remarkable initial success of the treatment unfortunately turned out to be short lived.

TALK
Discuss the film with panelists:
- Dr. James Dennert, Psychiatry, Private practice
- Professor Janet Neiswander, Neuroscience, ASU
- Professor Jason Robert, Bioethics, ASU

Contacts: Karin Ellison, Life Science Ethics Director
Michelle Sullivan Govani, Graduate Assistant

For more information and to RSVP
sols.asu.edu/life-science-ethics