

The Moviegoer's Guide to the Future

with Professor Andrew Maynard

Tuesday, Nov. 27

6:30 p.m.

Alamo Drafthouse Tempe

From “Jurassic Park” to “Ex-Machina,” what can science fiction movies tell us about the technologies of tomorrow, and how they might impact our lives? Join us for an evening of mind-blowing ideas and movie clips as ASU Professor Andrew Maynard explores how sci-fi movies reveal the challenges and opportunities of developing technologies that are beneficial, responsible, and ethical.
