

Life Science ETHICS

Brains, Science and the Public Interest

Movie Night: “Concussion” (2015)

Sept. 10, 2018 | Biodesign Auditorium, B105
Doors open at 5 p.m.

EAT Box supper served.
RSVP required sols.asu.edu/life-science-ethics

WATCH “Concussion” (2015), featuring Will Smith, dramatizes the work of Nigerian immigrant pathologist Dr. Bennet Omalu in describing and publicizing long-term neurological damage from concussions in football.

TALK Discuss the film with panelists:

- Gretchen Winter, Business Ethics, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign
- Shawn Klein, Sports Ethics and Philosophy, ASU
- Janet Neiswander, Neuroscience, ASU

The series, Brains, Science and the Public Interest, continues
Jan. 25, 2019 with “Awakenings” (1990)

Contacts: Karin Ellison, Life Science Ethics Director
Michelle Sullivan Govani, Graduate Assistant

For more information and to RSVP
sols.asu.edu/life-science-ethics

ASU School of Life Sciences
Arizona State University