

NEW COLLEGE ‘COMMIT TO SUBMIT’ PROGRAM – FALL 2021

WHAT: 3rd Annual Commit to Submit program Fall 2021 will support new faculty to:

- Develop their research project ideas
- Engage in grant seeking
- Rehearse communicating their research ideas
- Learn about the research support available to them at ASU and build a network of peers that can support their work as reviewers, advisers, collaborators.

PARTICIPANTS: New tenured/tenure-track faculty commencing at New College in Fall 2021, and invited faculty.

OUTPUTS: At the end of the program, faculty will have:

- A 1-page summary of a research project idea to use in discussions with program officers and colleagues, or as a basis to begin the grant writing process
- A practiced 3-slide ‘pitch’ of their research, and experience in communicating their ideas with colleagues and stakeholders
- Sample budget, budgeting tool
- Network of New College colleagues that may be future collaborators and peer supporters.

EXPECTATIONS: Following the program, faculty will be encouraged to commit to submitting 1+ grant proposals to a major sponsor (or 2+ proposals to smaller sponsors) in 2022.

DURATION/ SCHEDULE: September 2021 - January 2022. Group meetings are scheduled for faculty participants, School Directors, the Associate Director for Research and Research Advancement staff. Optional: support activities
