Engaging the Past to Create the Avant Garde a dialogue with
Peter Sellars

Peter Sellars is an internationally recognized theater director and a Distinguished Professor in the Department of World Arts and Cultures at UCLA. Sellars is the recipient of a MacArthur Fellowship, the Erasmus Prize for contributions to European culture, the Gish Prize, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

In this conversation, Peter Sellars and Ayanna Thompson, Director of the Arizona Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies, will consider the ways classical texts address contemporary issues. How does the work of Shakespeare and other authors speak to the challenges we face in our society today?
