

Celebrate the Past

Focus on the Future

ASU Polytechnic Campus Alumni Lecture Series

Marking 20 years of accomplishments, 1996-2016

This year-long series features alumni changemakers from each of the six colleges at ASU's Polytechnic campus, talking about their time spent at Arizona State University and what they are doing now.

Leatta McLaughlin, with the Arizona Department of Agriculture, kicks off the series in September, speaking on The Trans-Pacific Partnership: Opportunities and Risks for Arizona. This lecture is sponsored by the Morrison School of Agribusiness at ASU's W. P. Carey School of Business, from which she graduated in 2003.

Light refreshments will be provided.

- Who: Leatta McLaughlin, associate director, Animal Services Division at the Arizona Department of Agriculture
- When: Thursday, Sept. 22, from 6 – 7 p.m.
- Where: Cooley Ballroom A, Student Union, ASU Polytechnic campus
- Cost: FREE and open to the public
- RSVP: polyspeakerseriessept.eventbrite.com

Please park in lots 10 and 49.