

Celebrate the Past

Focus on the Future

ASU Polytechnic Campus Alumni Lecture Series

Marking 20 years of accomplishments, 1996-2016

This year-long series features alumni changemakers from each of the six colleges at ASU's Polytechnic campus, talking about their time spent at Arizona State University and what they are doing now.

Joanna Sweatt served as a field radio operator and recruiter for the United State Marine Corps from 1998-2007 and deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. After being honorably discharged, she graduated magna cum laude from the College of Integrative Sciences and Arts with a BA in Literature, Writing and Film. She is now the COO of the Veterans Directory and serves as a voluntary board member with ASU's Veterans Chapter of the Alumni.

- Who: Joanna Sweatt, COO of The Veterans Directory
When: Wednesday, Nov. 30th, from 6:30 – 7:30 p.m.
Where: Cooley Ballroom A, Student Union, ASU Polytechnic campus
Cost: FREE and open to the public
RSVP: asupolyspeakerseries.eventbrite.com

Please park in lots 10 and 49.