Runaways is a Tony®-nominated Broadway musical from 1978, devised by Elizabeth Swados through workshops with young people who had lived on the streets of New York City. A collage of songs, dances and spoken word pieces about running away from something – perhaps a home, a parent, a partner, a predator, themselves – this musical is fueled by the energy and resilience of young people. With a mold-breaking, multicultural folk, jazz, pop and rock score, Runaways explores the substitutes we find to deal with the loss of family, however effective or self-destructive they may be.

“I made my debut as a director of musicals with Runaways twelve years ago. It was a life-affirming and personally profound experience then, and now. With everything that the year 2020 required us to face, endure, and adapt to, I knew this musical was an ideal project for ASU artists this season. To bring the stories of these young adults to life in the times of our current global pandemic, we created this virtual theatre streaming experience through new rehearsal and production procedures that aligned with all CDC and ASU health guidelines and restrictions. Protocol included: remote auditions via video submissions, regular testing for all team members, rehearsals held remotely on Zoom or in person outdoors on our loading dock (which was converted into a performance space), temperature checks and social distancing for all onsite rehearsals and recording sessions, the self-taping of several scenes by the cast members themselves in personally-chosen safe locations, and the wearing of face coverings at all times - except for the approved safely-distanced final live performances captured on video and in sanitized recording studios. The resulting one-of-a-kind theatrical experience proved to be a fulfilling and inspiring challenge to both overcome and embrace, akin to the original spirit of Runaways itself, and we are honored and excited to share the experience with you.”

Toby Yatso, director

“I had no script, no songs, no storyline — just an idea, and an intuition about the potential of adolescents and how they have been grossly underestimated. I wanted to make a collage about...the substitutes people find to deal with the loss of family and how these substitutes are sometimes effective and sometimes self-destructive. I wanted to tap the energy of young people. [...] One of the most important things we all learned is that the imagination can take you out of your own spiritual ghetto. Their way of speaking, their rhythms, the look in their eyes; they influenced me. I'd ask them questions and they would tell me stories. [...] The songs in this show are the folk music of a very special tribe called the Runaways. This is their music. There is no plot or story line in Runaways. It's a collage of speeches and songs for their rituals. The way I work music, there's no difference between the music and the words. I think you can make songs of how people talk.”

Elizabeth Swados (1951-2016), creator of Runaways

CAST OF CHARACTERS

EVENING CALABRESE

XINGYU WANG

LIUYI JIANG

MCKAYLEE TODD

THOMAS SMITH

WESLEY BRADSTREET
EVENING CALABRESE is incredibly excited to be performing in Arizona State University’s production of Runaways! She is a Musical Theatre Performance major, continuing her Sophomore year at ASU. Her favorite roles include Beth in Little Women, Miss Flannery in Thoroughly Modern Millie, and Bridget in Bring it On. She would like to thank her family, friends, voice teacher, and the entire cast and production team for making this show possible during these crazy times!

XINGYU WANG is a fourth-year Bachelor of Music candidate in the musical theatre program. His favorite ASU on-stage credits include Dater #17 (Simon) from Speed Dating Tonight, Male Ensemble from The Light in the Piazza, Boy 2 from the student lab production Trouble in Tahiti, Male Dancer from Kiss me Kate. He has had some acting experiences in China, while favorite projects include Agwe from Once On this Island, and Rooster from Annie the musical. He would like to thank his parents who support him during his studies abroad. He hopes all of his friends will come to see this show!

LIUYI JIANG is a senior Bachelor of Music candidate in the musical theatre and a student of Andrea Pitman Will. She got the voice and acting training before college and this is her last year of college. She was last seen with New Work Reading as Guerilla Girl in Well-Behaved Women, Dater #45 in Speed Dating Tonight. Her favorite roles include Kim in Miss Saigon, Liz in If/Then. She cherished every single opportunity. This will be a wonderful chance to have a real and practical experience. She would like to thank her family and friends who are always with her and give support during her studies abroad.

MCKAYLEE TODD is an interdisciplinary artist from Roswell, NM. When it came to pursuing music, it was a challenge growing up in a small town known primarily for UFOs and green chile. Nevertheless, McKaylee placed singing at the center of her gaze. She is pursuing her M.M. in Opera Performance, but also enjoys singing various styles including folk-rock, pop, and jazz. McKaylee is delighted to have been in Runaways and looks forward to her next production, The Impresario. In whatever she performs, McKaylee strives to share stories that frame the human experience, spread laughter, and showcase fearless expression.
THOMAS SMITH is so excited to be working on such an incredibly poignant piece of theatre with such a talented and kind group of people. He is a senior Music Theatre major studying under Nathan De’Shon Myers. His favorite shows at ASU have been Triassic Parq, Fly by Night, and Kiss me Kate. He hopes you all have been staying safe and happy, and hopes you enjoy watching the show as much as he did helping make it!

WESLEY BRADSTREET is a junior Bachelor of Music candidate in both Music Theatre Performance and Music Learning and Teaching. He is a student of Dr. Amanda DeMaris. Runaways marks Wesley’s seventh production with MTO. He most recently played Dater #22 in Speed Dating Tonight! last fall. Hailing from Prescott, AZ, some of his favorite roles include Lumiere in Beauty and the Beast and Gremio in Kiss Me Kate. He is so grateful for the opportunity to tell this story! Many thanks to his family, friends, and teachers for their unending support and love. @wesleybradstreet on Instagram!!

CHRIS ELLIOT is excited and honored to be cast in Runaways at ASU. Chris is a first-year graduate student pursuing his Master of Music in Music Theatre: Voice. This will be his second feature in an ASU production. He’s performed in a variety of venues including Hale Center Theater, Goucher College: Opera & Musical Theatre Workshop, Stage Craft Studios, and many more. Some of his favorite roles include Sparky from Forever Plaid, Riff Raff in The Rocky Horror Show, and Teen Angel in Grease. Special thanks to his family, friends, cast and crew, for their endless love and support!

BRIANNA MCCLURE is finishing her last semester at ASU before graduating with her Bachelor’s in Music for Musical Theatre Performance. Favorite credits: Woman 1 in 35mm, Mime-a-saurus in Triassic Parq (Zoni Nomination), Olive Ostrovsky in 25th Annual...Spelling Bee, and Minnie Fay in Hello, Dolly! In her free time, she likes working in her garden, camping, playing with her dogs, and traveling whenever she can! She feels very grateful to be making art during this time, and wants to thank her family, friends and mentors for their love and support. Follow her on Instagram @brianna_mcclure15

TARYN LANDIS is so excited to be working on this production of Runaways in their final semester of their Performance and Movement degree at ASU! Over the past four years at ASU, they have participated in numerous productions across the valley. Some of their most recent favorite roles include Gherardino in Gianni Schicchi, Baddie in She Kills Monsters, and Romaine in The Laramie Project. They are radiating love for everyone who has supported them through this wild ride of life!

ANNA SERA is thrilled to be in her fifth production with ASU MTO and her first ever filmed musical. Anna is a third-year Musical Theatre Major. Some of her favorite roles include Jenny Hildebrand in Street Scene, Wednesday Addams in The Addams Family, and Sandra Bloom in Big Fish, which earned her the ASU Musical Theatre Award for Best Vocalist. Along with performing, Anna is a writer and will be premiering her second play in April 2021. Anna would like to thank her parents, younger sister, and the entire cast and crew of Runaways for all of their support and encouragement.

JASMINE RODRIGUEZ is a second year Opera Performance major at ASU under the voice instruction of Stephanie Weiss. Jasmine received her bachelor’s degree in Vocal Performance from Chapman University in Orange, CA. Roles performed include Rose (Street Scene), Dew Fairy (Hansel and Gretel), Miss Wordsworth (Albert Herring), and Lauretta (Gianni Schicchi). She’s attended the Taos Opera Institute and the American Institute of Musical Studies in Graz, Austria. Next summer she will be attending Seagle Music Colony, performing the roles of Laetitia (The Old Maid and the Thief) and covering the title role for the world premier of Harmony. Thanks to Toby, Mario, Hannah, Kate, Max, and Kristen for putting this masterpiece together. @jasmine_soprano

HANNAH BRUDNOCK is a third-year Musical Theatre student at ASU! She is very grateful and proud to have had the opportunity to work on Runaways with such an amazing cast and creative team! Some of her favorite roles include The Narrator in the student lab production of Fly By Night, Waitress in Speed Dating Tonight!, Violin Girl in Street Scene, and The Baker’s Wife in Into The Woods. Huge thanks to her family for all the love and support this past year!

BRUNO STRECK RODRIGUES is a Queer Latino immigrant from Brazil, a performing artist, director, activist, researcher, and educator. Bruno’s thrilled to be telling a story so close to his heart and playing a character of a similar cultural background as his. Bruno graduates in May with his MM in Performance (Music Theatre). Favorite past roles include Brazilian Dancer in ASU’s Speed Dating Tonight! and Wreck in Wonderful Town, Bobby in Cabaret, and Shere Khan in Jungle Book at Grand Valley State University. IG: @brunostreckrodrigues.

DANIEL BARGEN is thrilled to be a part of Arizona State University’s Runaways! Daniel is a sophomore musical theatre major at ASU. Some of his favorite credits include Newsies, Nice Work If You Can Get It, Kiss Me Kate, A Chorus Line and more. Daniel would like to thank the entire cast and crew of Runaways for a truly wonderful experience! @danieldearest

ELISE DANIELLS is passionate about stories that reveal the dualities of the Human experience and finding common ground. Born in London, England, Elise moved to Phoenix, Arizona at the age of 7 years old. She grew up in an artistic household; between her mother’s career in musical theatre and her father’s professional ballroom dance career, Elise has always had her eyes on the stage. Being of biracial heritage, Elise felt a natural dualism in her identity and realizes that nothing in this world is mutually exclusive. This knowledge encouraged her to pursue her love of both opera and musical theatre, without the pressure of constraining herself to one style. Her most recent roles include Deloris Van Cartier in Sister Act, Maya Angelou in Well-Behaved Women, Kaylee the Coordinator from Speed Dating 25mm, and Romaine in The Laramie Project. They are radiating love for everyone who has supported them through this wild ride of life!

JASMINE RODRIGUEZ is a second year Opera Performance major at ASU under the voice instruction of Stephanie Weiss. Jasmine received her bachelor’s degree in Vocal Performance from Chapman University in Orange, CA. Roles performed include Rose (Street Scene), Dew Fairy (Hansel and Gretel), Miss Wordsworth (Albert Herring), and Lauretta (Gianni Schicchi). She’s attended the Taos Opera Institute and the American Institute of Musical Studies in Graz, Austria. Next summer she will be attending Seagle Music Colony, performing the roles of Laetitia (The Old Maid and the Thief) and covering the title role for the world premier of Harmony. Some of her favorite roles include The Narrator in the student lab production of Fly By Night, Waitress in Speed Dating Tonight!, Violin Girl in Street Scene, and The Baker’s Wife in Into The Woods. Huge thanks to her family for all the love and support this past year!
Tonight (a One Act Opera), and Rose (cover) in Street Scene.

FRENKI HYKOLLARI is a third-year Music Theatre Performance major, studying under Gordon Hawkins. She was most recently seen as Donkey in MET’s Shrek. Other favorite roles include Sophie in Mamma Mia at FHT and Daphne in Fly By Night at ASU. She is deeply thankful for the opportunity to make art in times like these, and thankful for people like you who give artists an audience to continue creating. She would like to thank her family and her partner for their unconditional love. @frenki.hykollari

GREGORY OXLEY is a junior pursuing a BS degree in Technological Entrepreneurship and Management. He has been involved with theatre since 2013, starting as Gremio in The Taming of the Shrew and Smokey in Damn Yankees at the Rochester Institute of Technology in NY.

WHO’S WHO IN THE CREATIVE TEAM

TOBY YATSO (Director) is part of the music theatre performance faculty at the ASU School of Music, Dance and Theatre, where he teaches acting and performance. He is also artist-in-residence with The Phoenix Theatre Company and a member of Actors’ Equity. Directing credits at ASU include Triassic Parq, Guys and Dolls, Smile, and Bat Boy: The Musical, and around the Valley of the Sun he has directed productions of The Santaland Diaries, How to Succeed…, Lucky Stiff, Oedipus for Kids, Devil Boys from Beyond, The 25th…Spelling Bee, and numerous musical theatre showcases. On stage, Toby is best known for playing Patrick in American Psycho: The Musical, Buddy in Elf, Princeton/Rod in Avenue Q, Alex in Buyer and Cellar, Bert in Mary Poppins, and Shakespeare in Something Rotten. Runaways would not be possible without the hard work of Mario Yniguez, Hannah Victoria Thomas, all Runaways designers, and the entire MTO team - thank you all!

MARIO YNIGUEZ (Music Director) is a composer, performer, instrumentalist, and conductor who graduated from Arizona State University (2019) with a BMus in Vocal Performance at ASU. He scored Orange Theater’s award-winning, Ida (2017) and music-directed/composed for Southwest Shakespeare’s production of Twelfth Night (2018). He MD’d Lin-Manuel Miranda’s In The Heights at Desert Foothills Theater (2018) and most recently composed a new work with librettist and composer, Vaibu Mohan, called Adi Antham (2020), and produced a new song-cycle Nayika (2021). For the past 7 years he has performed with his psychedelic-rock band, Harrison Fjord. He is elated and humbled to have music-directed, produced, played guitar and engineered ASU’s production of Runaways. A huge, loving thank you to those who believed he was the right one for this beautiful project!

HANNAH VICTORIA THOMAS (Choreographer) is a dance faculty associate at Arizona State University. She holds a Master of Fine Arts dance degree from Arizona State University where she premiered her first evening-length work Her Brown Body Is Glory. She is honored to work as lead choreographer with the dedicated cast and creative team of Runaways at ASU. She has also choreographed AJAX for Arizona State University and A Streetcar Named Desire for Georgia College. She would like to thank God for the gift and Toby Yatso for the opportunity to showcase and empower artists of color in these times.

MAX PLATA (Assistant Stage Manager) is a student of Barrett, the Honors College studying Theatre Writing. His previous experience with Music Theatre & Opera includes Stage Manager for 35mm: A Musical Exhibition and ASM for The Light in the Piazza; current projects with MTO include the first official Color Cabaret upcoming in February. Max would like to thank the production team for their hard work in creating art under challenging circumstances. He’s enjoyed working in the frigid winter air and carrying set pieces ten miles uphill in the snow each day.
