The Native Vote and Recent Developments in Democracy

A discussion and update on recent democracy developments in Arizona and in the United States Congress. From legislation, litigation, redistricting, and initiatives - Arizona is seeing rapid attempts to change how voting works in the state. This discussion will include identifying what laws are now in effect, what laws are now proposed, and what the impact will be on Native American voters in Arizona.

RSVP at ilp@asu.edu

Thursday, Sept. 30 • 12:15-1:15 p.m.
Beus Center for Law and Society
President Peterson Zah Active Learning Classroom, Room 352
111 E. Taylor Street, Phoenix, AZ 85004