The 9/11 Heroes Run honors our heroes: those lost on September 11th and in the wars since, as well as the veterans, active duty, first responders, inspired civilians and families of the fallen that support them. The 9/11 Heroes Run 5K welcomes participants of all ages and levels to run, walk, ruck or volunteer in remembrance and gratitude.

Started as a grassroots run in 2007 by the family of fallen Marine Travis Manion (USMC), the 9/11 Heroes Run has grown from 300 runners in Doylestown, PA to more than 70 races around the world uniting more than 60,000 people annually. Race proceeds directly support Travis Manion Foundation, which empowers veterans and families of fallen heroes to develop character in future generations. Join us in uniting communities to strengthen our national character and honor the legacies of our fallen heroes.
