ASU's Polytechnic campus

Peralta Hall, room 145 asu.edu/map

Join Rear Admiral Denny Wisely (USN, Retired) as he discusses his time as a fighter pilot during the Vietnam War and his time with the U.S. Navy's elite Blue Angels.

The author of "Green Ink: Memoirs of a Fighter Pilot," Wisely had a distinguished, decorated career in the U.S. Navy that began in 1961. His assignments, too many to list individually, included 350 combat missions over Vietnam from the USS Kitty Hawk as a fighter pilot in VF-114; he commanded fighter squadron 151 aboard the USS Midway and captained the aircraft carrier USS John F. Kennedy. Wisely was Chief of Staff, Commander of the Sixth Fleet during the evacuation of the U.S. Embassy in Beirut and the last Bush-Gorbachev summit in Malta.

The fall 2018 Aviation Speaker Series events are organized by ASU's College of Integrative Sciences and Arts, Faculty of Interdisciplinary Humanities and Communication.

H. Denny Wisely was raised in Wayne, N.J., and attended Fairleigh Dickinson University prior to entering the Naval Aviation Cadet program in 1961. Wisely attended the U.S. Naval Post Graduate School and received a degree in government/international relations.

He retired from the U.S. Navy in October 1994 as a Rear Admiral. As a civilian, Admiral Wisely developed and ran an international business for Motorola in Scottsdale, Ariz.

His military honors include the Silver Star, Legion of Merit (6), Distinguished Flying Cross (2), Air Medal (29), Purple Heart.
