

SEA CHANGE GATHERINGS

CONNECT. SHARE. SHAPE CHANGE.

The SEA Change Advisory Council and the Office of Inclusive Excellence invite you to join virtual gatherings and share in an ongoing conversation to strengthen our STEM community at ASU. Below is a series of upcoming sessions designed to foster connection, shared learning, and meaningful dialogue around topics impacting faculty, staff, and students across the university.

CLICK HERE TO RSVP

April 27
11:00 AM

Resilience: Taking Care of Yourself

Patricia Rankin, Professor of Physics,
Department of Physics

April 29
12:00 PM

Are Best Practices in Teaching Working for Today's Gen Z Students?

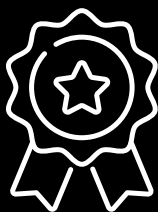

Sara Brownell, PhD, President's Professor,
School of Life Sciences

May 6
1:00 PM

Navigating Family Commitments and a Career in STEM: Unique Challenges

Susannah Sandrin, PhD, Clinical Professor,
Environmental Science & Science Education
College of Interdisciplinary Arts and Sciences

May 19
11:00 AM

Advocating for Yourself & Owning Your Achievements

Sonia Vega-López, PhD, Assistant Dean of
Inclusive Excellence & Professor of Nutrition
College of Health Solutions